

SRF Activity

During February the Drinking Water Treatment Revolving Fund gave authority to two loan recipients to advertise for construction bids on their water project. The staff has worked with loan recipients on other projects to move toward advertisement for bids, project construction, and commitment of funds.

Rural Water Association Activities

The most recent contract with Rural Water started in November 2003 and they are performing duties as defined in the contract.